

Are you lost in the maze of business insurance?...

...We'd be happy to guide you through

Insurance requirements are constantly changing and so are your needs.

Our philosophy is simple - we focus on our clients and put them at the centre of all we do.

We arrange the correct policy at the correct price and make sure that it is accurate first time.

Business Insurance. What we can we offer you...

We acknowledge that each client has different requirements and will take the time to understand yours before we arrange comprehensive cover at a competitive premium that meets your specific needs. We have access to business sector and trade specific policy wordings and the experience to know which will be correct for you.

Hagley Insurance Brokers provide a local, professional Broking service, and we can assist you whether you are a Sole Trader, SME, PLC or Charitable organisation in any Business sector.

As we are not tied to any Insurer we will approach those that we know from our experience can assist, additionally, our membership of the Cobra Network allows us exclusive access to market leading products and enhanced cover propositions.

We look to form long lasting and mutually beneficial partnerships with our clients and we achieve this by delivering a flexible, modern, innovative approach. Reliability and consistency are paramount, as is our handling of every claim to the point of a satisfactory settlement.

Our experienced teams can assist with each of the following:

Commercial Insurance - protection for your Business assets and liabilities, vehicles, professional indemnity, director's personal risks

Mid and High Net Worth and Personal Insurance - protection for your personal assets and liabilities, home, vehicles and travel

Financial Services - our financial planning service for all your investment and protection needs both business and personal

All our services are offered on a free no obligation first meeting basis, so that you will receive a complete review at NO COST.

The exceptional, local service and experience we offer is key to our successful partnership with our clients and we look forward to an opportunity to demonstrate this to you.
